DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1 to 7, drawn to a refractory metal plate, classified in class 148, subclass 422.
 - II. Claim 8, drawn to a method of making a sputtering target comprising cold forging, cross rolling and forming a sputtering target, classified in class 148, subclass 559+.
 - III. Claims 9 to 18, drawn to a method of making refractory metal plate comprising at least 4 reducing steps and at least 3 annealing heat treatments above the recrystallization temperature, classified in class 148, subclass 668+.
 - IV. Claims 19 to 22, drawn to a method of making a metal article comprising forging a billet to the desired thickness, recrystallization annealing, returning the forged billet to room temperature, side forging the billet, recrystallization annealing the billet, bringing the side forged billet to room temperature, rolling the billet to plate and recrystallization annealing the plate, classified in class 148, subclass 559+.
 - V. Claims 23 to 25, drawn to a sputtering target, classified in class 204, subclass 298.12.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Art Unit: 1742

2. The Group I and Groups II, IV and V inventions are distinct in that they are capable of separate manufacture, use, or sale as claimed and are patentable (novel and unobvious) over each other (though they may each be unpatentable because of the prior art), MPEP 802.01.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Inventions III and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as for example a process involving fewer reducing steps and/or fewer annealing steps.

4. The Group II and Groups III and IV inventions are distinct in that they are capable of separate manufacture, use, or sale as claimed and are patentable (novel and unobvious) over each other (though they may each be unpatentable because of the prior art), MPEP 802.01.

5. Inventions II and V are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as for example a process employing a different combination of hot and/or cold forging and/or cross-rolling and/or rolling steps.

6. The Group III and Group V inventions are distinct in that they are capable of separate manufacture, use, or sale as claimed and are patentable (novel and unobvious) over each other (though they may each be unpatentable because of the prior art), MPEP 802.01.

over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

7. The Group IV and Group V inventions are distinct in that they are capable of separate manufacture, use, or sale as claimed and are patentable (novel and unobvious) over each other (though they may each be unpatentable because of the prior art), MPEP 802.01.

8. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and because the search required for any one of the above listed inventions is not required for the remaining inventions restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

9. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
